City (Pop.)	Ordinance
Auburn (23,055)	Sec. 60-607. - General provisions and design standards. Development of the parking and loading spaces required by this section is subject to the following general provisions and design standards: [...] (6) No required parking area or driveways servicing same shall be used for the sale, repair, dismantling or servicing of any vehicle, equipment, material, supplies or merchandise. (7) In any residential district, off-street parking may include the parking or storage of not more than one inoperable motor vehicle per lot. If also unlicensed, the vehicle must be stored within a building.
Augusta (19,136)	Sec. 13-25. - Unregistered motor vehicles. Motor vehicles that have not been registered and inspected for two (2) consecutive years may not be stored within fifty (50) feet of a public right-of-way in a residential zone unless the vehicle or vehicles are garaged or buffered by plantings or fences from public view. Exceptions to this section are antique autos pursuant to 29-A of the Maine Revised Statutes, vehicle dealers licensed pursuant to 29-A Maine Revised Statutes Annotated, documented illness or an absence from the city for at least one (1) year by the owner or owners of the property where the vehicle or vehicles are located. No court action to enforce the provisions of this section may be taken by the city until and unless the owner or owners of the property where the vehicle or vehicles are located have received a thirty (30) day notice in writing from the city advising said owner or owners of a violation of this section.
Portland (64,249)	Sec. 12-75. Purpose. The purpose of the article is to protect the health, safety and general well-being of the citizens of Portland; to enhance and maintain the quality of the environment through the removal of junked motor vehicles from the public way and private property; and the recovery of the costs of removal of such vehicles from the owners of the vehicles or the owners of private property, whose property values are improved by the removal of the junked motor vehicles. [...] Sec. 12-78. Placing on private property. It shall be unlawful for any person to deposit, place, leave or abandon any old, discarded, worn out or junked motor vehicle, or parts thereof, on any private property in the city, except in duly authorized locations.
South Portland (23,324)	Sec. 15-253. Unlawful to leave, deposit junked vehicles on private residential property. It shall be unlawful and a violation of this article for any person to deposit, place, leave or abandon any inoperable, discarded, worn-out or junked motor vehicle, or parts thereof, on any private residential property in the city, except in duly authorized locations, unless garaged. After receiving notification from the police department or the code enforcement officer that a junked motor vehicle is located on private property in violation of this section, the property owner must apply to the city clerk's office for a permit to keep the motor vehicle on the property. No more than one junked motor vehicle may be permitted on any one lot. The city clerk shall forward the application to the police, fire and code enforcement departments and may forward the application to any other city department deemed appropriate for review. Upon approval by all the reviewing departments, the city clerk shall issue a permit to the property owner to keep the motor vehicle on the property for one year from the date the application was received by the city clerk's office. No extension of the one year permit period may be granted unless approved by the city council based on special need of the property owner. The property owner may appeal a denial of an application by the City Clerk to the City Council. All vehicles or equipment used in association with farming or construction shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.
